SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Overall it was a quiet day. Officers kept busy by making several traffic stops and checking on city parks. During the day, TPD received a call from a witness who stated he observed two subjects in a loud argument while seated in a red SUV. He stated that he saw them striking each other, then leaving south on Golden State Blvd. The vehicle was located a few blocks away and the subjects were contacted. It turned out to be a domestic violence situation. One of the parties came looking for the other in Turlock and located her. A verbal argument started, then turned physical over the ownership of property. One of the parties was arrested for a domestic violence related crime. It turned out that the arrested party also had an outstanding warrant from a previous domestic violence situation. They were taken to jail.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Graveyard Officers and SCU stayed very busy performing proactive police work and making arrests. SCU contacted and arrested one subject for fentanyl sales. They contacted and arrested another for illegal possession of a concealed handgun. Graveyard officers pursued an off-road dirt bike as it sped through town. The motorcycle was lost when it entered an orchard, then later discovered abandoned in the empty canal near Verduga Rd. Air 101 was on-scene to assist but was unable to locate the rider. Officers also made numerous arrests of individuals with outstanding warrants, all via proactive contacts.
